So many pooches and people to scratch off your list...and so little time. Let our ultimate howliday gift ideas be your guide. BY LAURA NEVELL

Snug in Their Beds ▶

With these cushy, corduroy nesting beds from Canine Styles, the pups will be nestled all snug in their beds while visions of dog bones dance in their heads. Throw a shearling-lined, corduroy blanket on there, and reindeers can tap dance on the roof without waking Rover! Best of all, both are machine washable. Beds, $120 and up; blankets, $165. caninestyles.com

◀ Eco-Lucks for Eco-Conscious Dogs

These 100% eco-friendly collars from Dublin Dog are made from recycled plastic water bottles. The ink is water-based and eco-friendly, the tags are synthetic (not leather), and all products are made in the USA. The eco-Lucks line is available in four limited edition collections: Ivy League, Gravity, Cherry Blossom and Seasonal (pictured here). $22-$26. dublindog.com

Brag Book ▶

Think of it as a mini journal to keep treasured photos and sweet sentiments about your pooch. Or, at just 3.5 x 6.5", it makes a great stocking stuffer. Pages are held together by a loose-leaf ring tied with ribbons. $8 at 2pawprints.com.

◀ Cashmere for Canines

These beautifully crafted, 100% cashmere sweaters from Canine Styles will prepare your canine for any occasion, from a damp day on the coast to a windy one in the city. Available in Heathered Oatmeal, Heathered Burgandy, Pale Pink and Black. Sweater, $150 and up; hat, $55. caninestyles.com
